SUMMARY:

On 01 Dec 11, the undersigned was made aware by 021st District Officer Donna WHISENTON # 13697 that during the course of a robbery investigation at the location of incident, she and her partner (Officer Joel ROMAN # 16884) were obstructed in their investigation by the offender's girlfriend (arrestee [REDACTED]) and that the arrestee [REDACTED] kicked Officer WHISENTON on both thighs. Officer WHISENTON stated that she used the emergency takedown procedures, to handcuff and gain control of the arrestee.

At approx.. 0235 hours, pursuant to the undersigned's responsibility for the completion of a Tactical Response Report (TRR), the undersigned, while in the presence of Sergeant Thomas BACHELDER # 2096, Beat 2110R, verbally issued arrestee [REDACTED] the MIRANDA rights. CROWDER acknowledged receipt of her rights and stated that she wanted to answer questions relative to the incident for which she and her boyfriend ([REDACTED]) had been placed under arrest. The statements of [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: Initiation Report – Complaint Log # 1050389

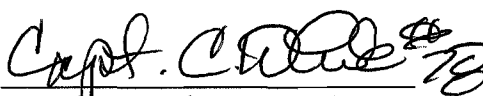

relative to the incident itself (pertaining to her and [REDACTED]), will be indicated in the TRR. However, during the course of the investigation, [REDACTED] said that after the police came to her apartment and asked if they could enter and search for a subject, she told them "Yes. Ya'll can come in and search." [REDACTED] said that after her boyfriend was placed under arrest, "I got kind of riled up because the officer (WHISENTON) told me I was being arrested and my baby would be turned over to DCFS." When the undersigned asked [REDACTED] if she "kicked" Officer WHISENTON, [REDACTED] responded, "yes." When asked how many times she kicked Officer WHISENTON, [REDACTED] responded "once." When asked where did she kick Officer WHISENTON, [REDACTED] said "on her thigh." When the undersigned asked "why did you kick the officer;" [REDACTED] said, "because she put my cuffs on too tight." The undersigned and Sergeant BACHELDER noted that [REDACTED] had slightly reddish marks to both wrists, with no scrapes, lacerations or breakage of the skin. At this point the undersigned asked [REDACTED] if Officer WHISENTON handcuffed her ([REDACTED]) with her "hands in the front." [REDACTED] said "No, behind my back." Based on [REDACTED] response, the undersigned asked [REDACTED] if she was down of the bed when she was handcuffed by Officer WHISENTON. [REDACTED] said "yes." The undersigned next stated to [REDACTED] that if she was face down on the bed and being handcuffed behind her back by Officer WHISENTON, it would have been quite difficult to kick the officer from the front while being handcuffed (because the handcuffs were too tight). [REDACTED] then alleged that Officer WHISENTON "choked" her around her neck and that it was at this point that she kicked Officer WHISENTON. [REDACTED] alleged that Officer WHISENTON used "both hands" to choke her. When the undersigned asked [REDACTED] to remove her (gray) hoodie shirt from her head and neck (so as to expose her neck), [REDACTED] stated that there were no injuries to her neck and that the undersigned would not see any marks. [REDACTED] then put her own hand up to cover her neck. However, prior to her doing same, the undersigned noted no marks to [REDACTED] neck. When the undersigned told [REDACTED] that she ([REDACTED]) did not observe any injuries to the neck, [REDACTED] responded "Well it's not like she dug her nails into my neck." [REDACTED] reiterated that she'd been choked. The undersigned asked [REDACTED] "What were you doing that would make the officer grab you by the neck?" [REDACTED] response was "I forgot."

During the interview, [REDACTED] complained of pain to her right wrist. When the undersigned asked her if she was otherwise injured, [REDACTED] said "no."

Based on the stated injury, Beat 2113R transported [REDACTED] to Mercy Hospital for medical attention. An Evidence Technician was requested, with E.T. ABUZANAT # 15206, responding to photograph the arrestee. The undersigned contacted Officer KOCHAN # 7160 at CPIC and obtained Log # 1050389 to address this complaint.

75 SUBJECT'S STATEMENT REGARDING THE USE OF FORCE

☐ DNA

☐ REFUSED

☐ UNABLE TO INTERVIEW (Specify Reason)

At approx. 0235hrs, while in the presence of Sgt. Bachelder # 2096, the undersigned issued the arrestee her Miranda rights. She acknowledged receipt of her rights and consented to an interview. [REDACTED] said that via Facebook, she asked her boyfriend [REDACTED] to come over to her apartment. [REDACTED] said that she subsequently heard a car door slam, looked out her window to see [REDACTED] in the gangway as he walked towards her apt., and she saw a taxi cab idling by (for an unknown reason). [REDACTED] said she buzzed the door for [REDACTED] to enter and that she "checked his pockets" (as she commonly does) and saw that he had a lot of money. [REDACTED] said that she asked [REDACTED] where he got the money and he said "Don't worry about it." [REDACTED] said that she heard voices and again looked out her window, this time to find several officers in front of the building. [REDACTED] said that subsequently, police came to her door and one of the officers said, "Do you mind if we come in and search for a couple of minutes for someone." [REDACTED] said that she agreed and said "yes. Ya'll can come in and search." [REDACTED] said the officers searched and for an unknown reason, arrested [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] said she got riled up after Officer Whisenton told her that she was also being arrested and her baby was being turned over to DCFS. [REDACTED] admitted that she kicked Officer Whisenton one time, after the officer had her down on the bed and the handcuffs were put on "too tight." [REDACTED] later said that she kicked Officer Whisenton because the officer choked her, with the officer using both hands to place around [REDACTED]'s neck. As noted, the undersigned observed no injury to [REDACTED]'s neck, but there were reddish discolorations to both wrists. [REDACTED] complained of pain to her right wrist. She was taken to Mercy Hospital for medical attention. [REDACTED] was photographed by E.T. Abuzanat # 15206.

76. WATCH COMMANDER/OCIC RATIONALE FOR BOX 77 FINDING

The assigned officers responded to a robbery (later determined to be a theft) incident involving a cab driver. The stated offender [REDACTED] - C.B. # [REDACTED] ran and hid in [REDACTED] apt. [REDACTED] deliberately attempted to mislead the officers as to the whereabouts of the offender. After finding [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] apt., the officers placed him under arrest and then Officer Whisenton attempted to place [REDACTED] under arrest for obstructing the police. At this point, [REDACTED] kicked Officer Whisenton several times on her thighs, forcing the officer to use an emergency takedown (on a bed) to gain control. During the interview with [REDACTED] to ascertain at what point she kicked Officer Whisenton, [REDACTED] changed her story and alleged that she kicked the officer when Officer Whisenton choked her. As noted, there were no injury to [REDACTED]'s neck and she said her neck was not injured. [REDACTED] also tried to use her hand to shield her neck from the undersigned's view. The Complaint Log number Initiation Report, accurately depicts information the undersigned received from [REDACTED]. As noted, [REDACTED] was charged with (misd.) Theft and Theft of Services (refer to case and arrest reports for both arrestees).
